COUNTY Tribune. NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, APRIL 23, 1887. NO. 14.

THIS SALE IS CONTINUED ONE WEEK.

From Neighboring Exchanges: It is said that Sheriff Penn, of Custer County was not justified in killing the two cowboys at Anselmo. And further, that the people of that place deeply mourn the death of the boys, and that they never had a fear of the town being attacked and destroyed by their friends. -Gandy Pioneer.

In Nebraska there are 630 agricultural implement houses, 164 bakeries, 407 banks, 807 blacksmith shops, 268 book stores, 603 boot and shoe stores, 730 contractors and builders, 336 wagon and carriage factories, 450 coal dealers, 750 druggists, 1,496 dry goods stores, 250 flouring mills, 500 grain dealers and elevators, 150 flour and feed dealers, 850 groceries, 630 hardware stores, 737 hotels, 600 livery stables, and 600 lumber yards. -Western Traveler.

Eastern people can hardly realize the difficulties of those living in the west who have a fondness for the stage. A party of twenty will go to Cheyenne from Sidney to see Edwin Booth in Hamlet. A hundred miles to see Hamlet played! Yet with many of the party it will be the opportunity of a lifetime to see Edwin Booth, or even to see Hamlet on the stage and they will long cherish pleasant memories of the brief hour with the peerless Booth in his delineation of Shakespeare's matchless character, the mysterious and melancholy prince of Denmark. -Sidney Telegraph.

The coroner's jury in the case of the stranger who met his death by burning in the balled hay is to the effect that Wm. Simms met his death by fire set by person or persons to the jury unknown. The hand fire engine purchased by the committee of the village dads at Nebraska City some time since arrived last Tuesday and was immediately set at work pumping water from the large wells sunk at the crossings of Spruce, First and Second streets which will abundantly furnish water in the case of fire. The hose for engine has not yet arrived. -Ogallala News.

The B. & M. railway is now being graded within 20 miles of Julesburg. When she reaches us land and town lots will double in price. Those who can should hold their lands and lots. Julesburg should be the county seat and if the people of the east end ever wish to be set off from Sterling the county seat must be located at Julesburg, and then let the people of Sterling knock at the legislative halls for division. There is no use talking, Sterling will oppose further division if they are allowed to retain the county seat next fall. The only thing for the people of Julesburg and the Frenchman to do is to stand together on that question. -Julesburg Champion.

The Farmers' and Merchants' Bank was opened for business at this place the first of the month. J. I. Beard, Cashier of the bank, has charge of the affairs at present, and he will be found in the building on the southwest corner of Phelps street and the Avenue. A move was made jointly last Saturday by parties living in Grant and parties living six miles east of here to circulate a petition for county division on town line between 12 and 13, and a cross fire was made by Grantites on Monday by making arrangements to circulate another set of petitions for division on town line between 11 and 12. This last move was met firmly by certain other Grantites and two farmers which resulted in a compromise to withdraw former petitions to divide midway on town 12. -Grant Enterprise.

The town was surprised last Tuesday, by the announcement that Blum Bros. general merchants had failed. It was generally supposed that the firm was on a good financial basis, and the statement that they were into the hole $10,000 or $12,000 was hardly credited. Several attachments have been issued against their stock, and their store is now closed. This is Broken Bows first mercantile failure. May it also be her last one. A telegraphic despatch received by sheriff Penn, announces that the two horse thieves were jail birds who broke jail at Valentine two weeks ago. A reward of $800 was offered for their capture. The one jailed here said before he started back that they were the fellows but refused to tell what they were held for there. -Broken Bow Republican.

Moorefield, a lovely town on the railroad, has never had a Lincoln Land Company boom but has been and is still growing steadily and healthfully. Curtis on the other hand, has just had a boom. Like the bladder the boy stepped on, "it busted". A prairie fire that swept over a large extent of country in the west half of the county last Sunday, did much damage among the homesteaders. Jake Mattoon's team was badly burned and one of the horses will probably die from the effects of it. Mr. M. also lost about 12 tons of hay and reports that nearly all of the hay in his vicinity was destroyed. It appears as though some men have no sense whatever about fire and in this country they entirely forget that the law imposes a heavy penalty where damage is done. -Stockville Faber.

FARM LOANS

Made at the Very Lowest Rates of Interest. Mr. Bancroft, the historian, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., for a month's visit. The principal object of his visit is to see Mrs. James K. Polk and to collect certain historical matter.

Ranchmen and stock growers in Colorado are beginning to entertain great apprehensions of a drouth during the coming spring and summer months. Their fears seem to be justified, as nearly all the mountain streams are very low and the depth of snow in the mountains very light.

Atlanta Constitution: The body of a negro who was drowned in the river at Abbeville, Ga., a few days ago was recovered in a novel manner. An old darkey took a bundle of fodder and put it in the river where the negro first sunk, when it floated down about fifty yards and suddenly stopped and commenced to whirl slowly round and round. Here the old negro dived down and secured the body. He claims to have recovered four or five other bodies by this means, and declares it to be an infallible guide.

Since the inter-state commerce act went into effect the number of personal applications for appointments under the administration has diminished very materially. A department official said the other day: The withdrawal of the railway passes has pretty effectually stopped the coming of delegations and individuals to urge appointments and press claims here. Before the inter-state law went into effect there wasn't a day passed that we didn't have delegations or individuals here for one purpose or another. They would come from the Pacific Coast and the far northwest, but now since the free passes have been conceded we don't have many such comers.

STARTLING BUT TRUE. WILKS POINT, TEXAS, Dec. 1, 1885. After suffering for more than three years with disease of the throat and lungs, I got so low last spring I was entirely unable to do anything, and my cough was so bad I scarcely slept any at night. My druggist, Mr. H. F. Goodnight, sent me a trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I found relief, and after using six $1 bottles I was entirely cured. J. M. WELLES. Sample bottle 5 cents at A. F. Streitz.

New York Sun: The Dry Goods Chronicle has an informant who narrates that many years ago here in New York ten young dry goods counter jumpers formed a society to marry rich girls. They swore to protect and aid each other, and all succeeded. This society of young clerks boarded generally at twenty-shilling boarding houses, curled each other's hair on Saturday night, went to Sunday school as teachers and became members of the church that had the richest members and the prettiest daughters. They went steadily and systematically to work in the accomplishment of their object, conferring with and assisting each other. Their piety game was the card that won in every instance. Some of the old families which figure in high society in New York are the direct descendants of these ten worthy young gentlemen.

Purify Your Blood. If your tongue is coated. If your skin is yellow or dry. If you have boils. If you have fever. If you are thin or nervous. If you are bilious. If you are constipated. If your bones ache. If your head aches. If you have no appetite. If you have no ambition, one bottle of Begg's Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will relieve any and all of the above complaints. Sold and warranted by A. F. Streitz.

Jay Gould has probably a hundred millions; but he does not think it wise to spend one of them in rearing a palatial domicile. Building is, in his judgment a monetary error, particularly when he can always purchase, below cost, a house that somebody else has built. This he has done in two instances. He bought his town house, at Fifth avenue and Forty-seventh street, and his country house at Iryington to advantage of their owners, who had long occupied them. They are both large, handsome, convenient - the country house has fine grounds and a magnificent conservatory - and are all that any reasonable man would desire. But there are those who think that a very rich man ought to advertise the extent of his riches on his walls, and such as they hold that Jay Gould has been derelict in architectural duty.
